Description

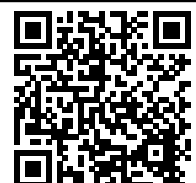

Circa 1900 a pair of quality small bronze cherub candlesticks each holding a flower shape candle cup in their mouth, with ropes, balls and cups at the cherub's feet suggesting it is part of a game they are playing. The details throughout show a fine quality casting by the manufacturers. The figures measure 21cm in height and the base is 8.5cm in diameter. They are in very good condition but the figure on the right - see photo 3 - has a ball missing from the base. We lightened the image to show how small the missing piece is. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price and for outside areas or abroad, please contact us for a delivery quote thank you.
