Description

A charming square silver frame with a central circle for the photo and a plain surround bordered by an embossed wavy edge. It stands on a wooden easel back. The silver is smooth and very reflective, bringing attention to the central picture. It dates to the start of George V's reign with clear hallmarks for Birmingham 1911. It also has a clear hallmark for maker William Hutton & Sons. The condition is very good. Diameter of centre: 9cm
