Description

An unusual & interesting antique silver plated epergne with four Vaseline glass trumpet vases. The stand formed in the style of art nouveau being a rising vine with one leaf bearing a presentation declaration. dated 1920. I have as yet found nothing definitive on the details in the leaf panel but believe that the "Roll Call" may refer to a musical theatrical group or something similar from the period. The four shaped & fluted floral style trumpet vases and the plated stand seem in good order but may benefit from further cleaning, this item is exactly as shown in the pictures.
