Description

A Victorian barrel back wing armchair, with buttoned upholstery and scroll arms, raised on ring turned front supports. Upholstered in a raspberry pink velvet type fabric. In good, sturdy condition, the upholstery is perhaps a tired but has no staining and is very serviceable, there is one very small area of damage to the front of the right arm support. It would originally have been raised on castors. I can arrange re-covering by my upholsterer if required - please contact me for further details. The back 106cm high, 62cm wide across the front, the set 52cm deep and 42cm high.
