Description

A pair of very decorative Meerschaum cheroot holders. Made from bone and amber, they are both in their original leather cases which are in very condition. Both cheroot holders have the usual burn marks to the bowl as evidence that they have been used and enjoyed. This doesn't take away from their beauty however. Circa 1880 The holder with cherub measures length 12cm and corresponding case 14cm The holder with dog measures length 7.5cm and corresponding case 9cm We can despatch free both in UK and in Europe.
