Description

An exceptionally fine KPM Berlin porcelain plaque, to The Prince Consort, Prince Albert, c. 1865. Painted by Carl Meinelt (1825-1900), after the original by Edward Henry Corbould, as the Memorial portrait to Prince Albert. He stands three quarter length, wearing gilt armour, bearing Royal Insignia, and symbols of State. Impressed KPM and sceptre mark. Incised dimensions of the plaque '14 1/2" x 11 1/2"'. Height of plaque - 37 cm, 14 1/2". Width - 29.3 cm, 11 1/2". Frame - Height - 55 cm, 21 5/8". Width - 47 cm, 18 1/2". Condition - Perfect. No damage. No restoration. Edward Henry Corbould's watercolour and mixed media posthumous portrait of Prince Albert as a Christian knight formed the centrepiece of an elaborate design for an imaginary altarpiece. It was inscribed (in German) "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness". Corbould's portrait drew closely on an earlier miniature of the Prince by Robert Thorburn (1818-1885) in which Albert's right hand rests on a knight's helm. Painted in May 1844, Albert presented it to the Queen on her birthday later the sam...
