A nicely proportioned mahogany side table with two drawers dating from the mid 19th century. It stands on elegant turned legs and the drawers have small turned knobs. It is in good original condition with a beautiful rich patina. It is strong and sturdy and the drawers open smoothly. There are signs of age and use, some marks and old stains and a small repair on the top which have created a lovely aged patina. There are no major damages and it is a good honest little table.
