Description

For sale, an Art Deco period Dorfwyh seven day straight razor set by JH Browne of The Waldorf Hotel with case engraved to RH Errington. This superior set contains seven razors each engraved to the back edge of the blade with a different day of the week. The blade is further engraved with the registered mark "Dorfwyh" an amalgam of Waldorf and Aldwyh which is the area in which the hotel is situated in London. The tangs are further engraved to, "JH Browne - Waldorf Hotel" and "Made in England - Ground in Hamburg" to the reverse. The blades are housed in a beautiful burr walnut and brass bound case with red velvet lined and fitted interior. The lid is red silk lined with gilt lettering stating, "JH Browne - Waldorf Hotel" and "Dorfwyh Registered". The case comes with a working lock and key and has a brass inlaid cartouche to the top on which the owner's name, RH Errington is engraved. John Herbert Browne, the seller of this fine set, owned the in-house hairdressing department of Edward Sanders and First Viscount Astor's Waldorf Hotel. Upon its grand opening in 1908, the hotel quickly became a London hotspot known for its grand design and generous accommodation. During...
