Description

Continental marquetry bombe commode This Continental marquetry bombe commode was made circa 1920. The chest is fitted 3 drawers each with its original gilt brass handles. It is of a wonderful serpentine and bombe shape inlaid with foliate marquetry in panels. The original cast gilt brass corner mounts and toes add that extra bit of interest. The rouge shaped marble top adds to its practicality as you can put a vase of flowers on the top without thinking about water staining it. Imagine how special this will look in your home and the many places it will fit. 85cms wide 35ins 49cms deep 19ins 87cmshigh 34ins All measurements are approximate This Continental marquetry bombe commode is an item of antique furniture that is a very green product that has not affected the environment we live in.
