Description

A superb early Victorian cut glass pineapple/ham stand. In Georgian and Victorian times, pineapples were hugely expensive and to have one was a conspicuous sign of wealth. Families would sometimes have a pineapple stand in cut glass or ceramic on a side table or as a dining table centerpiece. Upright they would also double as a ham stand and a large joint, surrounded by fruit and decoration would provide the focal point of a gathering or feast. This handsome and unusual early Victorian example has a waisted centre, with panels of barrel cutting throughout. A rare and desirable piece of 19th Century table glass. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £25.00 UK £40.00 Worldwide. Condition :- Excellent, with no cracks or chips. Origin :- English. Date :- c1840. Height :- 12 cms. Base diameter :- 19 cms.
