Description

A Bing O gauge live steam spirit fired 0-4-0 LNWR 2663 locomotive and tender, circa 1920. This is a nice little example of a tinplate oscillating single cylinder toy locomotive, with polished brass boiler, safety valve and two wick burner. The cab with hinged footplate. It is in original condition with tinplate tender. I have not attempted to clean this, so although used, it is in very original condition. It was wrapped in newspaper dated 1949 when I acquired it. It has chips and play-wear commensurate with its age and soot on the boiler etc. I have not fired it and it is sold as untested. 28cm long - locomotive and tender coupled.
