Description

A pretty pair of silver dessert serving "berry" spoons with parcel gilt bowls. The handle terminals are shaped and pierced to create a flower head atop a tall, leafy stem. Very fine bright cut machine engraved detail all over gives a delicate shimmery effect. Below the flower stem is a geometric pattern running down the remainder of the handle and similar in a ring around the bowl with embossed and engraved floral and foliate decoration in the centre. Hallmarked for London 1898, makers Elkington & Co. It measure 21.5cm (8 1/2") long and 4.3cm (1 11/16") wide and weigh 105g/3.4ozt. In excellent condition.
