Description

A fabulous complete Worcester porcelain chocolate cup set with matching stand and cover in the striking "Old Japan Fan" pattern, c.1768-1770. All pieces with corresponding waisted form with shaped rims, the cup with ornate twin handles and the cover with a flower bud knob. Underglaze blue forms the basis of the pattern, then enameled in red and green and all finished with gilt detailing. Pseudo oriental marks to the cup and stand. The set together measures 13cm (5 1/8") high. The stand measures 14.7cm (5 3/4") wide and 4.8cm (1 7/8") high. The cover measures 11.5 cm (4 1/2") wide, the cup measures 9.5cm (3 3/4") rim to rim and 14cm (5 1/2") across the handles. The cup alone measures 6.8cm (2 3/4") high and with the cover 12.7cm (5"). Condition is very good with some small and minor amounts of professional restoration as follows: the knob of the cover has been restored by fabrication. The cup has had some touching up to a small area around the rim just to the left of one handle. I have thoroughly examined this from all angles and I'm confident this touching up has only been to cover and stabilise a small crack. There is no evidence of any body repair, such as a break or ...
