Description

A fabulous silver and glass hunting flask from the mid Victorian period. This handsome full sized example has a bayonet action lid with an attaching chain. The glass body tapers towards the top and has a multi point star cut base. To the top of the lid is an engraved monogram of M with a coronet above, indicating original ownership by the Aristocracy. Unusually, it retains the original leather case. A rare and sought after gift idea or collector's piece, still usable today. Dimensions below. Postage and Packing :- £12.00 UK £25.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits and no cracks to the glass. The original leather case has had some minor repair work and some age related wear. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- London 1867. Maker :- George Henry Allen. Height (to top of lid) :- 17.4 cms. Diameter :- 4 cms. (widest point).
