Description

A Second Empire walnut sofa of small proportions in the Louis XVI style, the crested top rail with a gadroon en chapeau de gendarme with carved feather finials to the ends, fluted downswept arms around a padded back, over a stuffover seat on tapered fluted supports. French circa 1870. Condition: Excellent, the frame is solid and robust, the sofa is comfortable to sit on. The upholstery is reasonably fresh with one or two minor spots, otherwise it is in good condition.
