Description

A magnificent, good quality and unusual Art Deco upholstered ottoman in oak and coromandel wood dating from circa 1930. Really good quality and in good condition it has a well figured oak veneered base with beautifully figured coromandel wood corners and brass carry handles. It stands on square coromandel wood feet with its original brass and steel ball castors, the top newly recovered in black fabric. With upholstered lift up top, which opens to reveal an oak lined interior and brass fittings. Perfect to use as a coffee table with the addition of a tray or as a blanket box or window seat. Construction Oak / Oak Veneer / Coromandel Wood Condition Report Good condition. Solid and sturdy. Newly recovered over good horsehair upholstery. General wear commensurate with age. There is a split inside to the base, visible when you lift the lid, but it does effect it structurally. Dimensions Max Width at Handles: 100cm Width at Feet: 93cm Max Depth: 51cm Height: 50cm Internal: 85 cm Wide x 45 cm Deep x 33 cm High
