Description

Rare collection of antique 19th - 20th century Native American artefacts. There are 12 pieces altogether and the majority are 19th century or older ,but the seal/medallion looks to be mid 20th century. There is a lovely horn club with leather/material and bead embellishments; leather and beadwork gauntlet/sleeve and several spear heads, shells and pottery fragments, all of which are over 100 years old. It is housed in a frame and the pieces have been glued to a fabric backing. There is a small metal plaque which says 'Apache Artefacts' ,but the bead and metal medallion refers to 'Official Seal of the Navajo Tribe', so I assume there is a mix of artefacts from different tribal areas, probably collected by the person who had them framed. Overall condition is good ,there is a small piece of beading missing from the frame. Please refer to the detailed photographs and feel free to contact me with any questions or if you would like to view the item. Size: 60cm long x 37cm wide x 7cm deep. I will happily ship worldwide.
