Description

Late C19th Syrian carved hardwood octagonal table with nacre-shell inlay. Profusely carved hardwood, probably walnut, octagonal stand or table with inlaid nacre-shell or 'Mother of Pearl' detail. The carved inset panel top inlaid with a central 'star' shell design, the open-work octagonal sides and traditional Moorish or Islamic design shaped arches, with corresponding carving, star and circle shell-inlaid details. In excellent condition, with no losses, damage or repairs. A practical and decorative table to add glamour and exoticism to an interior. H 22" W 16" D 16" Syria c.1890
