Description

Rudolph Lehmann, 1819 - 1905 Portrait of Robert Lowe, 1st Viscount Sherbrooke, GCB, PC, 1811 – 1892 Robert Lowe, 1st Viscount Sherbrooke, GCB, PC, Signed/Inscribed: inscribed on a label on the reverse "The Rt Hon Robert Lowe" oil on canvas 30 x 25in. (76 x 63.5cm.) Provenance Caroline Sneyd, second wife of Robert Lowe, 1st Viscount Sherbrooke, and thence by descent Literature There is a study for this portrait in the British Museum catalogue number : 1906,0419.26 head and shoulders turned almost to right, and looking to right. 1874 Black, red and white chalk, on brown paper Notes Lowe, Robert, Viscount Sherbrooke (1811–1892), politician, born at Bingham, Nottinghamshire, on 4 December 1811, was the second son of Robert Lowe (1780–1845), rector of that parish and prebendary of Southwell, and Ellen (d. 1852), second daughter and coheir of the Revd Reginald Pyndar, rector of Madresfield in Worcestershire. He was an albino, and his eyes were extremely sensitive to light; moreover, he had imperfect vision in both eyes, and one was useless for reading. At Winchester College, which he entered as a commoner in 1825, he was much bullied, and unable to identify his tormentors...
