Description

Gents Omega bumper automatic wrist watch, 1950. The watch has a bumper automatic movement, calibre 342, which is working nicely. Early automatic watches such as this one relied on the rotor 'bumping' backwards and forwards between two springs to maintain the power within the movement. Later automatic watches have the fully rotational rotor. The movement is fully signed and the serial number 12,066,819 dates it back to 1950. The watch measures 34mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The case is stainless steel and it is in good condition, just light surface marks but nothing serious at all. The winding crown is signed with the Omega logo. The inside of the screw-on case back has the Omega triangular mark together with the case reference 2576-11 which is correct for the 342 movement. The lens is in good condition. The signed dial has been professionally re-finished, a long time ago, and it now has a really good look to it. Original hands (with a little marking), a subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute markers. A new sports strap has been fitted but the buckle with the Omega symbol has been retained. The watch will be sent in a later Omega pres...
