Description

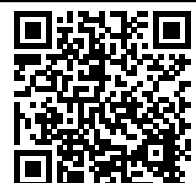

A fabulous pair of generously sized armchairs which just invite relaxation. This pair of armchairs have everything going for them, high backs, deep wide seats, flat arms, (god for resting a glass!) and super sprung seats. The back legs are well curved and the front cabriole legs are carved with trefoil feet. The condition of the frame and springs are good and sound. The chairs are presently covered in a raspberry mauquette, the new owner might decide to recover to their own taste. These timeless chairs would look stunning in any setting - we love them! c.1920
