Description

This beautiful little vanity-bag (chanteh) made around 1900, is in excellent condition, with different shades of glowing indigo-blue knotted-pile on the face. It is simply stunning, but not only that, the weaver has incorporated a fabulous back in plain-weave with two horizontal bands woven in un-dyed wool. The centre lozenge on the blue piled face depicts the symbolic double-headed sunbird - guardians of the gates of Paradise. This is a really lovely collectible vanity-bag. Size: 26cm x 29cm (10" x 11").
