Description

A great example of an Early 18th Century Walnut Lowboy. One long drawer sat over two smaller ones. Cockbeaded drawers with pine linings. The top is quartered veneered with inset feather banding and finished of with cross banding decoration. Cross-grained mouldings to the top. The handles are later. The Cabriole front legs are another great feature to this early table with straight legs to the rear. Dimensions are as follows - 30 3/4 inches wide. 18 1/2 inches deep and 28 1/4 inches tall. Superb colour and proportions. Overall a great table requiring restoration that will be included in the price and carried out to our very high standards in our own workshops set in the heart of the Cotswolds.
