Description

A desirable slightly rosy nine-carat gold Victorian chain link bracelet. The handmade links vary in shape, some are a rounded square, some are circular and some square section ovals, the whole connected with a sturdy hinged dog clip. Adorned with a "puffy heart" charm set with a small clear stone, the piece would be suitable for use as a charm bracelet or ready to wear as it is. In very good antique condition; just cosmetic surface wear - tiny scratches and dents, see photos - consistent with an antique piece worn over time. The clip closes securely. Crisply marked SOLID GOLD on the dog clip and hallmarked on one of the links. The heart is hallmarked for Birmingham nine-carat gold c.1896. Length: 7.5 inches. Width: Approx 6mm. Heart size: 1.7 x 1cm. Weight: 16.1g.
