Description

Better than average 18th century George 3rd bow-fronted mahogany hanging corner cabinet in very good original condition. Lovely timber used throughout with cross grain base mould and cornice mould. Three drawers to the bottom, 1 real one and 2 dummy ones with ebony inlaid escutcheons. The real one with original iron lock and key. The cornice section is cross banded in tulipwood. The inside has shaped shelves and is currently painted white but this could be changed to any colour of your choice. The cabinet is in superb clean condition and is a lovely colour. SIZE; 42" high. 18" square. 19" at the cornice. CIRCA; 1770 - 1780
