Description

A fine matching pair of Victorian Sterling Silver butter dishes. They are stylish and good quality, shaped as shells set on three small ball feet. They weigh approximately 65g in total. The dishes are both fully hallmarked for Horace Woodward & Co, London, 1891. They are in excellent condition with clear hallmarks. There are no major damages and they display beautifully. There are some faint surface marks and a few light surface scratches but nothing untoward or detrimental. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use or display. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK Delivery £5, rest of the world £15.
