Description

Fine example of the classic late Georgian mahogany writing bureau c.1790. Open the fall to reveal a good sized writing surface (plenty of room for a laptop) with green baize insert and original fitted interior. Pigeon holes, eight small stationery drawers and a lockable central cupboard, plus some cleverly hidden extra compartments. Over two short and three long drawers of graduated depth. Solid mahogany top, fall and sides, note the particularly good grain on the front of the fall. Oak lined drawers with cockbeaded drawer fronts and original brass swan neck handles (a few period replacement back plates). Sparkling flame mahogany veneered interior with inlaid detail and original gilded brass knobs. Ogee base moulding and tall bracket feet front and rear. Excellent condition and lovely mellow colour, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Keys supplied. Dimensions: width 45½", depth 20", height 42½".
