Description

An absolute gem, this writing box bears a label to the inside which just adds charm galore " T, Jones Fecit 1855 / Presented to his affectionate Mother on the 18th Anniversary of her wedding / August 29th 1855 ". The box is created from a variety of woods, worked into a highly decorative geometric tapestry with a cartouche made from Ivory and inlaid to the centre of the lid; the four bun feet and escutcheon also created from creamy Ivory. The interior is lined in the original red leather with a lift out tray an inkwell, various lidded compartments and a tiny secret drawer accessed by lifting the divider on the left. All the little bits and pieces you see are included with the box, the dip pen, inkwell, sealing wax, a couple of period visiting cards, nibs etc. A beautiful heirloom box in excellent condition complete with working key; measuring 9 1/2" x 7" x 2 3/4" tall.
