Description

A fabulous cut glass butter dish from early in the Georgian Regency period. This gorgeous example is of oval form, with stunning cutting in the Irish taste. The body and lid have matching design and the base is cut with a stylized star. The lid is removed via a slice cut knob and the overall colour tone is a beautiful grey/blue. These fine pieces are good collector's items and rather difficult to find, particularly with lids intact. A good example both practical and decorative. Dimensions below.
