Description

Walter Dusatti Oil on Canvas of A Balcony with flowers - signed. c1960 Walter Dusatti was born in Turriaco (Friuli), Italy, on September 18, 1930. Although Trieste is his artistic home, he now lives in Italy in a cottage near Gorizia, the capital of the province of the same name. Gorizia has belonged to Italy since 1919. Before then, Gorizia was the territory of the Tyrolean Counts of Görz and a possession of the Austrian Hapsburg empire. This cultural background, the historic landscape of his home-country, and the feelings they have engendered in the life of Dusatti have all had a profound effect upon his art. Dusatti became a member of the Trieste art circle at a young age and finished his studies in painting at the Academy of Fine Arts in Venezia. He became a professor of painting and history of art; but since 1980 he has devoted himself exclusively to painting, with a prime theme of still-life. Dusatti is a successful artist and a modest man who prefers an absolute order in his studio. Old-fashioned, and therefore so highly demanded, Dusatti knows that many people want such soothing paintings in their modern homes. However, this demand is not the only motive for h...
