Description

Marked Thomas Goode & Co Audley Street, Grosvenor Square, Mayfair, this plate would have been commissioned by this London institution which has long been recognised as a source of opulent and exquisitely crafted goods. The Company has been located at South Audley Street since 1845, from which base it has provided a uniquely personal service to the great families of Europe, including the British Royal Family. The plate is hand painted and the colours of the gold leaved pink roses are still very fresh. There is some wear to the gilding on the inner circular strand but no chips or cracks. A few barely visible surface scratches. In addition to the T Goode stamp the plate is marked 4474. Dimensions: 22.5 cm diameter. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund of the purchase price less the return transport costs with an approved courier once...
