Description

Dating from the late 19th Century, this governess cart has been in the collection of the same family for very many years and has all its original fittings, including a super pair of lamps, whip holder and brass front rail. The seats are painted in black lacquer and the padded back rest is covered with cream fabric. The coachwork is a very smart black and green stripe, there are some areas of wear as you would expect, but the overall condition is good. A fabulous example of transport from the turn of the century, this governess car is perfect for those with an equestrian interest. c.1890 Carriage length: 43" (109cm) Carriage width: 45.5" (116cm) Carriage width to mud guard: 59" (150cm) Length of shafts: 63" (160cm) Wheel diameter: 43.5" (110cm)
