Description

A really lovely set of 4 Hepplewhite period mahogany dining chairs. They are all in excellent sound condition. They have a lovely original wax polish finish. The real delight in these chairs is the beautiful splats. The serpentine front rail is a real sign of quality and a nice feature. They are a very robust design with the H stretchers between the legs. The drop in seats are a real advantage as they can be easily reupholstered and the joints of the chairs are very accessible should they ever come loose. The drop in seats need to be reupholstered.
