It measures 33mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The case is rose gold plated and is in lovely condition. The signed stainless steel case back states that the watch is waterproof but, as with any vintage watch, it should be kept away from water and moisture. The lens is in lovely condition. The signed dial is in its original finish with original hands, seconds sweep and date display (not quickset). A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
