Description

The only word to describe this rug is magnificent! Made in the village of Mishen in the Malayer region of north-west Persia during the second half of the 19th century, the fineness of knotting and detail is just incredible. Mishen was noted for probably the best and finest rugs made in this area in the 19th century and those rugs were generally referred to, not just as 'Malayer' but as 'Mishen Malayer'. This rug is in very good overall condition with a tight low-cropped pile and the range of natural colours is superb. Size: 1.90 x 1.37m (6' 3" x 4' 6").
