Description

A delightful mid 19thC Oriental, probably Chinese, cloisonné box. It is decorated on all sides with enamel landscape scenes of mountains, lakes, trees, bridges, boats and one or two boatmen and farmers. The colours are lustrous and bright, with a soft patina, and the surfaces are smooth with no damage or dents. The box stands on ball feet and the interior and base are glazed in a rich bright blue. The frame appears to be brass, as are the divides between the enamels. Beautiful and in remarkably good condition. Dates to approx 1850.
