Description

Victorian oak partners desk This Victorian oak partners desk was made circa 1860. The top is inset with our hand dyed and gilt tooled leather hide that is antiqued to a standard that you would think was the original. Under the top are the usual arrangement of 3 drawers with a further 3 graduated drawers to each pedestal, the drawers are fitted fine turned oak handles. To the rear there is a cupboard to each pedestal. The desk comes into 3 parts, if you find such a desk not so it will be very modern or have been changed from another item of furniture for profit or gain. As it comes into 3 parts this makes it easy to transport and move around your home or office. Imagine working behind this work-station and the amount of space that you will be afforded. Owning this desk will be a source of pride as well as providing a fantastic working desk. 152.5cms wide 60ins 91cms dep 36ins 74.5cms high 29 1/2ins All measurements are approximate This Victorian oak partners desk is a very green product that has not affected the environment we live in.
