Description

What a thing! Do you long for the French Chateau look? If so, this piece is for you. This fine 19th century sideboard is a magnificent piece. The sideboard is constructed from pine with a traditional scumbled paint finish, to simulate walnut. The sideboard has six drawers, two doors, a superb floral carved back and turned legs. The handles are made from clear glass and have some slight variation. Please note the age-related wear and slight damage to the draws. The piece is later sign written and would make a simply stunning addition to a home or café setting. The piece is later hand decorated.
