Description

Superb and totally authentic 1930's English wall-mounted clock. A large circular clear mirror fronted dial with thick bevelled edges and stylised mirrored numerals make up the face of this clock with black metal hour and minute hands. The side of the clock is made up from oblong sections of pink mirrored glass, all of this is set onto a wooden backing which houses the movement which currently runs on electric. In great condition, incredibly there's no damage or signs of foxing (silver spotting). This clock is quite large and also heavy and will need to be affixed securely to ensure it's safety.
