Description

Country House Antique Oak and Elm Windsor Chair Dating From the 19th Century ca. 1840, This Delightful Country House Antique Oak and Elm Windsor Chair has a curved spindle back with shaped back splat and a beautifully figured shaped seat. Standing on four turned legs with a crinoline stretcher, this delightful antique chair is full of beautiful charm and character, as one would expect and consistent with age, adding to its character and authenticity. The oak and elm has aged to a warm golden shade with a striking grain, good patina, is in very good condition and has been beautifully cleaned using a traditional form of wax finishing.
