Description

An Impressive Victorian Mahogany Wardrobe of large proportions by Lamb of Manchester. Very rare to find in this size, colour and condition. The inverted breakfront wardrobe topped with a handsome cavetto cornice above a central mirrored door which in turn is flanked by a linen press to the left and a wardrobe to the right. Each of these sits above its own graduated bank of drawers. The central mirror has a single drawer beneath. The linen press has five large tray slides providing ample storage for garments or shoes. The central and righthand cupboards are fitted with hanging rails and brass hooks. There is also a tie or belt clip fitted to the righthand door. The wardrobe has the most impressive brass sliding bolts fitted to the outer cupboards and there are also brass locks fitted. The doors and drawers are finished with attractive turned handles and the whole stands on a moulded plinth base. Breaking down in to eight separate pieces this gives the added bonus of an easier installation. A truly magnificent piece of English craftsmanship by one of the leading cabinet makers of the time. Makers stamp to the drawers. The antique tables and chairs of Lamb of Manchester are ...
