Description

Early 19th.c. Oak kitchen cabinet from North Wales, c.1820. Plenty of useful storage space within narrow proportions. Moulded cornice with shaped dental frieze over a glazed two door top fitted with two shelves (internal depth 12") and a painted interior. Slim astragal glazing bars to the doors and turned half-columns to either side, all above a pair of drawers. The cupboard base also features a pair of turned columns, with a single internal shelf (also 12" deep), original turned hardwood knobs, and diamond shaped bone escutcheons. All raised on the original bracket feet with a shapely cupids bow apron to the front. Very good condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Keys supplied. Dimensions: width 42", depth 15", height 84".

Internal Ref: 34200
