Description

George III mahogany linen press This George III mahogany linen press was made circa 1800 This George III mahogany linen press is made in 2 parts, thus making it easy to transport in and around your home. The top cupboard section has a pair of flame mahogany doors each with delicate cross-banding around the edge and an indent moulding to each corner. When the doors are open, they reveal sliding linen trays. These can easily be removed so that a hanging rail can be fitted inside if required. The base section is fitted a pair of half width drawers with 2 graduated full width drawers under fitted with brass swing handles. The George III mahogany linen press stands on straight bracket feet. Imagine how good this will look in your home, not only will it look stunning it will also provide wonderful storage 125cms wide 49ins 62cms deep 24 1/2ins 188cms high 74ins All measurements are approximate This George III mahogany linen press is a very green product that has not affected the environment we live in.
