Description

A large attractive English antique washbasin by Dent & Hellyer, London, 1920s. Of large oval form with original taps and waste. Dated 1929. Salvaged from the Primrose Hill home of film director Guy Ritchie. Could easily be made slightly higher with the addition of a plinth if so needed. A couple of small chips to the basin but generally wear consistent with age and use. Thanks for stopping by please browse our other interesting and eclectic items!
