Description

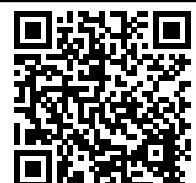

A wonderful antique 'Benlian' Tabriz carpet, in excellent pile condition and with rich natural dyes of rust reds and blues. During the beginning of the 20th century, the Benlian workshop successfully reinterpreted classic artistic rugs of the 16th/17th century Safavid period and created some of the best quality carpets for the European market. This beautiful antique Tabriz was produced in the workshop established in Tabriz by the British-Armenian firm of Benlian, whose distinctive signature is the star we can see visible in the bottom left-hand corner of the inner minor border. Request a home visit to see this remarkable antique Tabriz carpet in your own home, a free professional service we have offered for over 30 years. This carpet is in brilliant original condition and is ideal for any room in your home, we supply sturdy underlay with any of our carpets as well. The story of Ovanessoff and Benlian families have been interconnected, since Maral Ovanessoff's father, Stepan Ovanessoff moved to London from Birmingham and met Edward Benlian when he started attending the Youth Club at newly founded Hay Dun (Armenian House), where the hub of the London's small Armenian com...
