Description

A small double door antique pine wardrobe, c.1910. Beautiful decorative columns running vertically either side of the doors, and a useful bottom drawer with the original ornate brass drop handles - all in very good condition. Originally painted, now stripped. Can be purchased as it is (in bare wood) for £750, or waxed for £847. Both prices include the fitting of a new brass hanging rail. With an internal depth of 17.5" deep enough for shirts and most things, but may be a little shallow for coats and suits. Would make an ideal child's wardrobe. Totally dismantles for delivery so should go up any stairway. I can deliver and assemble for you, if you're not too far away. If you're some distance away, and you're happy to assemble yourselves I can supply an instructional video of myself assembling the wardrobe for you if required. If you'd like to use this as a storage cupboard then we can fit shelves for you. Please ask for more details. Height: 70", width: 53.5", depth: 24", internal depth: 17.5"
