Description

A superb 19th Century pig table with a solid slab top standing on four square legs joined by stretchers. The top has a wonderfully worn patina showing many years of use with some old repairs and lots of old marks. The whole piece is strong and sturdy and in very good condition. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
