Description

AFFORDABLE FINE ART - We are offering this lovely oil on canvas by the artist Mary Groves, who has signed the painting in the lower right hand corner and entitled on the edge of the stretcher 'Moseley Pool'. - The painting depicts the bank of the pool, with the waters reflecting the trees to the right in resplendent autumnal colours. - LOCATION Moseley Park and Pool is part of the former estate of Moseley Hall, which was rebuilt in 1792-6 - the park being designed by Humphrey Repton. - The estate began to be split up for housing in the second half of the 19th Century and the portion that is now the park was split from the rest by a road and some local landowners formed the Moseley Park and Pool Company Ltd. in 1898 to protect the land from further development. - The land amounts to the lake and eleven acres. In 2006, the limited company was converted to a charitable Trust and is now run by volunteer trustees, access being on an annual membership basis. - ABOUT THE ARTIST Mary Groves was born in Farnham, Surrey in the second quarter of 1854. She studied at Lambeth School of Art, Miller's Lane, where she won a bronze medal in 1883 and later at the Royal Academy Schools. ...
