Description

For your consideration is this beautifully styled Art Deco cocktail cabinet, dating to the 1930's and English. A perfect piece if you want lots of storage but not a lot of space taken up and with added wow factor. The whole piece is literally a circle cut in half, the two curved doors to the front have their original catalin bakelite handles and when opened reveal a multi level tier of glass shelves with a mirrored backing. The inside of the doors, lemon squeezer one side cocktail sticks the other. Loads of space here to accommodate all your requirements for entertaining. Fully restored and in showroom condition, ready to be delivered.
