Description

Neat size early 19th century Georgian Scottish, mahogany cased 8 day longcase clock by PETER GARDEN of LONGSIDE (Aberdeenshire). This is a lovely neat, not too high, mahogany cased Scottish clock. Simple painted dial with floral painting to the top. The movement fully serviced and in perfect working order is of 8 day duration. The case is solid mahogany with long door to the centre with nice shaped and moulded top. Swan neck hood with reeded columns and original turned wooden finial and patera's. The clock has a moulded plinth base. The clock door has the original working lock with key. The clock is in very good condition with no issues at all. The case is a lovely mellow colour with waxed finish. SIZE; 18 1/2" wide at the widest point, 9" deep and 80" high overall CIRCA; 1810 - 1820
